And the appearance of it much comforted us, especially seeing so goodly a land, and wooded to the brink of the sea. It caused us to rejoice together, and praise God that had given us once again to see land. And thus we made our course south-southwest, purposing to go to a river ten leagues to the south of the Cape.1 But at night the wind being contrary, we put round again for the bay of Cape Cod; and upon the 11th of November we came to an anchor 1 This river was the Hudson. coast.
