From the host of the popular Cheapskates segment on the Hugo-Award winning podcast StarShipSofa, Frame Story features seven short stories with the rich description and twisted endings of writer Adam Pracht. Frame Story: A man finds help from an unexpected source to save his daughter from the very essence of Loss. (Finalist in the Stuff You Should Know Horror Fiction contest. The popular podcast is created by Discovery Channel and is a consistent iTunes Top 10 podcast. ) Dial Zero: Paul has the cushiest job in the United States - the last customer service representative. Then he encounters the last unsatisfied customer. Angel of Death: Harbingers of death come knocking at Robert Learys door. But theres more going on than a simple mixup. Insane: A psychologist encounters an old college friend who has abandoned his CEO paycheck to become the best-dressed streetcorner prophet ever. Passings: Time folds in on itself in a milestone moment for a mother and son. Preservation: A project to save humanity is misused to save the daughter of the initaitves leader. Passion Play: In the small town of Easter City, the annual passion play is the central event of the year. But when the plays Jesus seriously injures himself, Luke the stage manager has to struggle against an eccentric director, a shady producer, an unseasoned understudy, his own doubts, and an incredible series of play snafus to make it through opening night. Advance Praise for Frame Story I love Adam Prachts writing. Its unexpectedly imaginative. -Josh Clark, co-host of Stuff You Should Know There is so little time left in the world. My advice: you need to make time for this book! -Tony C....
