Excerpt: . after this enlargement, the palace seems to have remained untouched for a hundred years, until, in the commencement of the fourteenth century, the works of the Gothic Palace were begun. As, therefore, the old Byzantine building was, at the time when those works first interfered with it, in the form given to it by Ziani, I shall hereafter always speak of it as the Ziani Palace; and this the rather, because the only chronicler whose words are perfectly clear respecting the existence of part of this palace so late as the year 1422, speaks of it as built by Ziani. The old palace, of which half remains to this day, was built, as we now see it, by Sebastian Ziani. * So far, then, of the Byzantine Palace. xn. 2nd. The Gothic Palace. The reader, doubtless, recollects that the important change in the...
