Tate Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 72 pages. Dimensions: 7.0in. x 4.9in. x 0.3in. Horses are mentioned more times in the Bible than almost any other animal! In Horse Tales, Larry Killam tells us what those horses might say if they could talk. This collection of short stories includes answers to the what ifs surrounding horses in four of the most well-known stories of the Bible: What if a Roman soldier in the cavalry saw Jesus arrest, Crucifixion, death, and Resurrection and in the end believed in Jesus? What if Paul, while under arrest, rode beside a Roman soldier who listened to his teachings? What would Joseph's donkey say about the nativity story? What if cowboys showed up in Bethlehem where Jesus was born? Saddle up for what is sure to be an entertaining journey that will get you wondering about all the animals in the Bible and what they might say if they could tell Horse Tales, too! This book is an eLIVE book, meaning each printed copy contains a special code redeemable for the free download of the audiobook version of the book. This item ships from multiple locations.
