Sarabande Books, United States, 2001. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Cate Marvin uses language the way a gymnast uses her body; she is a formalist who has thoroughly learned the pleasures and gains of abandon. But it is her excursions into wild image and passionate song that win the reader s heart. The heart is central in World s Tallest Disaster, which is essentially a book of love poems--love lost and found, love requited, love abandoned and betrayed. What Cate Marvin has done in her remarkably assured and powerful first collection is to remind us in fresh terms of the news that stays news: that our desire is Not a sea of longing, // but the brack of wanting what s physical/ to help us forget we are physical. Violently passionate and firmly symmetrical, like tango or the blues, these poems-at first-are about sexual passion. . . . But in the great tradition of love poetry, these poems don t stop with love. They move from eros to imagination. Or they thrash between the two. . . . This is an encouraging book in the context of American poetry s fashions or factions, because it evades categories. [Marvin s] is an urgent as well as an artful voice. --from the Foreword by Robert Pinsky
