Excerpt: . . . 11 less expenditure of money. The Postal Service and Post Office have been up in the air much too long and it is time to get back on terra firma. There is no need or demand for this experiment. And one of my favorites, Along with the spineless cactus, the motherless chicken, and the seedless raisin, do we really want trackless travel now So we have always been controversial. We are very big, we understand that. But we have always used technology. We have been a technology user and the country has benefited from that use. Our Internet strategy is both simple and comprehensive. We want to use the Internet for internal efficiencies, like any company would. We need to add value to our core products and services through the richer, more effective channels through which you can reach us. And finally, we want to...
