I believe that a hearty will and strong values transcend time and place. With these ideals in mind I wrote my three tales I call them collectively, the eastern gin, THE IRNIAN CHARM This story derives from one of the most antiquated and culture old countries in the Middle East (Iran). The setting of this tale takes place prior to the outbreak of the Islamic revolution. We meet an individual who is obsessed with the lives of the upper echelon, and is engrossed with a woman above his class; we also meet an Englishman who has come to a foreign land to study his historical archives. Both men have varied lives, but both their tales shall intertwine. Two different ends. . . One believes in love. Other believes in the mind. One lives in the past, the other studies the past in order to make a better future LEBANESE MILK We encounter a man whose virtues and morals have longed played with...
