

A Trial of Recognition: Essex, a Conclusive Trilogy, Part Three

By F L Light

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Trial of Recognition The Earls of Essex and Southampton are tried together for High Treason before a jury of the noblest peers. Pleading not guilty, they strive in angry and arrant disputation with Attorney General Edward Coke and Francis Bacon. This drama is the third part of an Aeschylean trilogy and maintains the classical form of tragedy in English with seven scenes of dialogue and seven choral performances. Comments on F L Light's translation of the Iliad: It is always gratifying, it elevates the human spirit to see one our fellows set his aim unbelievably high and incredibly hit the mark! David Madgalene, bilingual author of I Hear A Journeyman Singing and many other books of verse. Light has blended very well the traditions of Shakespeare, Homer, and the English language sonnet, without erring on the side of pretense. The language is high, direct, and modern. I'm thrilled with these. Zachary Bos, editor of Sixty Six: a journal of sonnet studies. With a classical, controlled touch, F L Light pursues perfection in metrical form, whilst freely...
