Excerpt from The Fiftieth Anniversary of the Founding of the New England Church, Chicago: June Thirteenth and Fourteenth, 1903 The propriety of commemorating the semi-centennial of the founding of the New England Church had been privately discussed among the members, and at the annual Church meeting, held on February 11, 1903, The Church Council was authorized to arrange for the celebration of the Church Jubilee on June thirteenth and fourteenth. On March nth, Rev. Mr. Winchester, the assistant pastor, reported an outline of the scheme proposed for such celebration, which report was accepted, its recommendations adopted, and the Committee was continued. On May 20th, at the monthly business meeting, on the report of the Committee, it was formally Resolved, That the semi-centennial of the founding of the New England Church be observed by special services on Sunday morning and evening, June 13, 1903, and by a public meeting and social gathering on Monday evening, the 14th of June. That the service on Sunday morning be devoted to an Historical Sketch of the Church, to be prepared by...
